

Laurence Hurst Anniversary Show

BANNEKER-DOUGLASS MUSEUM

Songs of the Caged Bird

Opening Reception

Saturday, January 12, 2019, 3pm - 5pm

In celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Maryland Commission on African American History and Culture, we proudly present the Laurence Hurst Anniversary Show and the Songs of the Caged Bird exhibition, both on view from January 8, 2019 until June 8, 2019.

The Laurence Hurst Anniversary Show - Curated from his personal collection, Laurence Hurst puts his talent on full display while weaving in the history of the Maryland Commission on African American History and Culture.

Songs of the Caged Bird - This thought provoking exhibit features works from Maryland based African American artists including: Daniel Brooking, Joseph Edwards, Diane English, T.H. Gomillion, David Allen Harris, Aziza Hunter, Esther Iverem, Ulysses Marshall, Ida Mitchell, Greta McGill, Kamala Subramanian, and Lilian Burwell.

Upcoming Events:

January 26, 2019 - Songs of the Caged Bird, Book Signing with Lilian Burwell
February 9, 2019 - Frederick Douglass Bicentennial Celebration
February 16, 2019 - Songs of the Caged Bird, Artist Talk

RSVP at: bdmuseum.maryland.gov/events or 410-216-6180

Banneker-Douglass Museum
84 Franklin Street Annapolis, Maryland 21401
bdmuseum.maryland.gov
Hours: Tuesday-Saturday, 10 am - 4 pm
Free Admission

The Banneker-Douglass Museum is a unit of the Maryland Commission on African American History and Culture, which is part of the Governor's Office of Community Initiatives.

